

Join us at the 2008 “24 Hours @ Saginaw”

Watch trains and have a good time with members of the North Texas Chapter, NRHS. At least 9 railfans stayed the full 24 hours last year. Several stayed 12 hours or more! We recorded 58 trains, and the year before was 75 trains.

Our Objective:

We watch and record trains for a 24 hour period.

Our Goal:

Spend 24 hours at the Saginaw Heritage Center (the depot) at 301 S. Saginaw Blvd. in Saginaw, TX.

Date and Time:

Friday, May 23th & Saturday, May 24th, 2008
7:00pm to 7:00pm, for 24 hours!

Come watch, talk, listen and photograph trains safely while sharing fellowship and education with like minded railfans and families. Also, help us promote the City of Saginaw as a nationally known hot spot to watch and record trains safely. It is reported up to 60 trains pass the Saginaw depot per day! Plenty to fill your train watching appetite!

Activities Include:

- Operation Lifesaver Rules on “How to watch trains safely”.
- A safe area to watch trains.
- 24 hours of Railroad videos and slide programs.
- Railroad theme games and trivia to help pass the time.
- Railroad Scanner broadcast of approaching trains.
- Masterboard to record the running total of trains.
- Door prizes and merit awards for hours logged watching.
- Food, Fun and More...

Admission is FREE, Donations are accepted.
